I can see that the Republican National Committee are going to be getting some VERY generous contributions on the next elections. Much more than the ones they did last year to insure that they got off better than 'Scott Free' on their ('antitrust') case. I sure wish that I were wealthy enough to 'buy Justice'. I'm just a poor slob that has to obey the law.

"The Golden Rule of our 'Justice' dept. is "He who has the gold, makes the rules". Way to go John Ashcroft & Bill Gates!!!!!!
